SUNDAY is an annual contemporary art fair held in London which focuses on new and emerging artists and galleries from around the world. This year SUNDAY will showcase 25 international galleries exhibiting solo projects or curated group presentations.

SUNDAY Art Fair is held at Ambika P3, University of Westminster, 35 Marylebone Road, London NW1 5LS. It takes place in a 14,000 square foot, triple height subterranean space close to Baker Street underground station and less than ten minutes walk from Frieze Art Fair. Entrance to the fair is free and open to all.

The editions section will return as part of the fair this year with artist's editions presented by regional institutions. This year will also see the return of the SUNDAY Art Fair Print Portfolio in association with Artspace, with new editions by Olivia Erlanger, Ian Law and Oliver Osborne.

Allihopa - Café Partner.

Allihopa launched last spring on London's street food scene making a name for themselves as smoked fish artisans with a Scandi twist. Co-founders Jake and Sam produce cold-smoked trout from their Norfolk smokehouse, served up with delicious homemade pickles and sauces. Expect an eclectic blend of saltiness, sweetness, acidity, smoke and heat - there's a taste to suit every palate, which is perfect as Allihopa means "everybody" in Swedish!

Background & History

SUNDAY Art Fair is a gallery-led art fair, run by participating galleries. From 2010 - 2012 the fair was organised by the galleries Tulips and Roses, Croy Nielson and Limoncello. Rob Tufnell and Lüttgenmeijer organised it between 2013 - 2014. Since 2015 the fair is organised by Supplement, London following their participation in 2014.

A significant number of galleries who have exhibited at SUNDAY in the past six editions of the fair now participate in Frieze Art Fair, including Chewdays, Croy Nielson, Freedman Fitzpatrick, Freymond-Guth, Frutta, Dan Gunn, High Art, Hopkinson Mossman, Jan Kaps, Koppe Astner, Limoncello, Rodeo, Seventeen, Southard Reid, Gregor Staiger, Simone Subal Gallery, Supportico Lopez, Rob Tufnell, Taro Nasu, Truth and Consequences,

Many successful artists were presented at early points in their careers over the past five years at SUNDAY, proving the fair to be a fantastic platform to discover emerging talent. They include B. Wurtz, Anne Imhof, Calla Henkel & Max Pitegoff, Emily Mae Smith, Florian Auer, Christopher Chiappa, Ditte Ejlerskov, Ella Kruglyanskaya, Benjamin Senior, Amy Yao, Aaron Angell, Aids 3D, Maire Lund, David Raymond Conroy, Laura Aldridge, Philipp Timischl, Puppies Puppies, Nicolas Ceccaldi, Simon Fujiwara, Ryan Gander, Rosalind Nashashibi, Matt Connors, Christian Jankowski, Oliver Laric, Dan Rees, Hugh Scott Douglas and Mark Ariel Waller.
